

To James Monroe

Wilmington 9th May 1813.

50-

Sir

I have time only to acknowledge the honor of having received your letter of the 6th inst. with the accompanying papers, and the letters of credence which were forwarded by the Postmaster last evening from Philadelphia. The Neptune is at New Castle and Mr. Gallatin myself design going on board of her this morning. In quitting the country permit me Sir to leave with you my best wishes for its prosperity and for the successful operations of the Government against the common enemy. and at the same time to assure you of the great personal esteem and consideration with which I have the honor to be your ob^d Serv^t
