To His Excellency Joseph Haslet Esquire
Governor of the State of Delaware

The Petition of Thomas Cubbage humbly sheweth,

That your petitioner was presented by the Grand Jury of Kent County, at the Court of Quarter Sessions held at Dover in and for said County in Nov. 1811 for selling spirituous liquors by the small measure — that at the present term of said Court, your petitioner appeared before the Justices thereof and confessed that the charges prefered against her were true — and gave for reason of her misconduct, that she was at the time of committing the offence, and now is poor and unhealthy — that she has a husband who instead of supporting her, or endeavouring to support her, idly exists on her means — that she has three small children (the eldest being only seven years of age) and [illegible] her, equally unable to help themselves or to assist that to keep herself and her children from beggary want and the Poor-house your Petitioner was induced to the necessity to commit, as she has frankly acknowledged in open Court, a violation of the laws — for which your Petitioner has had a fine of $20.33 imposed on her by the Justices of the said Court in obedience to the duties of their office. Your Petitioner therefore begs your Excellency to take the premises into consideration, and by your Constitutional interference, to relieve a poor, weak lily, tho' industrious woman from the payment of the fine or as aforesaid imposed —

And your Petitioner as in duty bound &c

I do hereby Remit the sentence fine —

Your Petitioner therefore prays your Excellency to take the premises into consideration and remit to

To His Excellency Joseph Haslet Esquire Governor of the State of Delaware!

The Petition of Andrew Gibson of Brandywine Hundred and County of Newcastle in the State aforesaid

Respectfully sheweth

That your Petitioner has lately been called before the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to answer to a complaint of Jeremiah G. Harker for an assault and Battery said to have been committed on him by your petitioner some time ago — and which is well known by those who have signed this petition to have been a mere matter of no injury or consequence to the person complaining; but from a want of health to attend the Court before which it was brought for adjudication your petitioner was fined in the sum of fifteen Dollars with costs of suit which he considers as a hardship, considering his want of health at the time of trial and therefore prays that your excellency will upon considering the case be so gracious as to remit the fine aforesaid.

And your petitioner will, as in duty bound, pray
