0358

Honored Sir January the 18th 1814 your excellency I trust will pardon the Liberty I now take in writing to you.
Before you have begun your official duties as the governor of this state, I am informed you have been applied to before this day for the appointment to the office of Recorder for the County of Kent, as to the Persons who have applied I think I am not true when I say I have as great a right to ask as them, and I think I can perform the duty of that office as well as either of them I am this day forty one years old and I have faithfully done my part in the cause of the Federal Interest for twenty years and more I think it not worth my while to go and get a long Recommendation as you have known me for a long time, I bold get a Thousand new names and money as worthy as are in the County, if you want any other Information as to my fitness you can obtain it, My father has been a voter in Favour of the Federal party for upwards of Forty years and never had any thing from 0359

The party more than a military appointment I have three brothers and a long train of relations all several men rather than a my father at any time hath asked the party for any office beyond the amount of the one I now beg at the Hands of your excellency, and if I should be appointed which I venture to hope I shall, my dear Father will feel himself rewarded for his long Service to the party and all my friends will be much more accommodated than the amusements of such appointments, If I should be so fortunate to be appointed the trust reposed in me shall never be forfeited, but shall ever be gratefully Remembered by your excellency, obedient and Humble servant

Richard Cromwell.

As your excellency will please to remember that I never have had any appointment but that of a lieutenant while many have had appointments of a longer time who were than our selves for the party or do any thing else but to
