

To his Excellency

John Clarke Esq.

The Petition of George Maston humbly sheweth That at the ~~House of~~ ^{House of} ~~Assembly~~ ^{Assembly} ~~last~~ ^{last} year your petitioner was fined for selling spirituous liquors by the small measure contrary to law, that your petitioner being very poor, and having a large family to maintain, conceived himself unable to employ counsel for his defence, and believed that a true statement of his case would induce a remission of the penalty. - Sometime during the last summer Mr. James Stewart having some hands employed on the marsh near Kitts Hammock where your petitioner resides, came to your petitioner in the forenoon to get some rum to treat them; that your petitioner sold him a quart, ~~and~~ ^{and} Mr. Stewart thinking ~~this~~ to be too small a quantity for them, came again in the afternoon, and upon his request received from your petitioner another pint; that your petitioner did not suppose that this sale of three pints of rum to the same person on the same day was a violation of the act of the General Assembly - It appears however that the circumstance of of his selling the rum one parcel in the forenoon and ~~the~~ ^{the} residue being a pint in the afternoon, subjects him to the penalty of the law, but he hopes that your Excellency, considering his poverty and the innocence of his intentions, will remit the penalty.

to sign

To His Excellency John Clark, esquire, Governor of the State of Delaware.

The Petition of Noah Carter humbly represents, That at the late Court of General Sessions of the Peace of the State of Delaware held at Dover in and for Kent County, your Petitioner was indicted for a nuisance in obstructing the Public Road, adjoining his farm. That he submitted the case to the Court, and they inflicted upon him a fine of fifteen dollars, with the costs of suit, that your Petitioner considers himself aggrieved by the fine aforesaid, for that in committing the said nuisance he done it ignorantly and without any intention of infringing on rights of the Public.

He merely dropt those rails along the side of the road for the purpose of repairing his fence which run along side in a parallel line with the road, without any intention of letting them remain there longer than was necessary to repair his fence.

Your Petitioner thinks his case an extreme hard one, from the cause above mentioned; He therefore prays your Excellency to extend you Mercy to him by remitting the fine aforesaid

And he as in duty bound will pray

Noah Carter

We whose names are hereunto subscribed do recommend to the Governor the above named Noah Carter, for a remission of the fine mentioned in his petition; believing it to be a case to which the Mercy of the Governour ought to be extended.

The petition of Patrick M^cConnaughey of St. Georges Hundred, in the County of New Castle, Humbly sheweth,

That your petitioner hath for a long time, kept a public house of entertainment in the said Hundred; - that the said house has always sustained a good character for propriety and order; - that your petitioner in order to have his licence renewed, some months ago, ^{to New Castle} sent up, by a messenger, an application for such licence as is required by the Act of Assembly of this State; - but the person entrusted with the business not understanding the proper steps to be taken - neglected to procure the licence; and your petitioner afterwards omitted to apply for the same, from other business occupying his mind; that one reason also for his not having strictly attended to procuring the licence, was, the common practice of taking out such licence and paying the necessary fees at any time during the year; - that your petitioner was much surprised when he was informed that the Grand Jury at the present term of the Court of Quarter Sessions for the said County, had found a bill of indictment against him for keeping a tippling-house; that your petitioner having no licence as required by the Act of Assembly - was advised not to traverse the said Indictment, but submitted, and was fined by the Court in the sum of thirteen dollars & thirty three cents, with costs.

Your petitioner therefore prays your Excellency to take the matters aforesaid into consideration, and as there was no intention on the part of your petitioner to violate the law, that your Excellency may be pleased to remit the said fine together with the costs.

And your petitioner will ever pray &c.

To his Excellency John Black Esquire Governor of the State of Delaware, - The Petition of Dennis Minnie of the County of Kent in the State of Delaware.

Respectfully sheweth

That a Bill of Indictment was found against him at the present May Term of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace and that he being held at the County of Kent, on a charge of kidnapping a certain free negro man named Thomas, together with a consciousness of his innocence of the charge in said Indictment he was induced to traverse said Bill, but being poor and unable to employ Counsel and to procure Testimony from the State of Maryland, which he has no doubt would have proved him innocent of said charge, and upon his trial he was found guilty and the sentence of the Law then had pronounced against him by said Court. - That your Petitioner is extremely poor and has eight children the eldest of which is not more than twelve years old, and the youngest not more than eight months old who are motherless, and are altogether dependant upon him for their support, maintenance & protection.

That if the law is really strictly of said charge he would with sorrow & repine see the punishment which is to be inflicted on him in consequence of said conviction.

He therefore prays your Excellency to take his case into consideration, and be it that part of his punishment so far as relates to whipping and whipping - Dennis Minnie
