Chumbley May 17th 1813.

Sir,

General Shackton has directed me to countermand the order issued to you last week for detaching a Battalion from the second Regiment, in consequence of the remainder of the drafted militia from this Brigade being ordered into the service of the U. States by the Governor's General order of the 13th inst. and which will be published in the next Wilmington papers. You will consider, therefore, that order as countermanded. — You will detach from the Regiment under your Command in conformity to the mode fixed by the Militia Law of this State one Lieutenant and order him to repair immediately ^{to Newbury} to act as an officer in the detachment of militia in this State ordered into the service of the U. States. — You will return the name of the officer detached.

On the day of the Union of the second Regiment in June next, you will make to Genl. Shackton a return showing the names of the officers, number of men, arms & accoutrements of every kind fit for service in each of the Companies of that Regiment.

I am Sir Everly.

Lt. Colonel

2^d Regt.

Del. Mil.

By order —
