Adjutant General's Office,
Milford, July 19th 1814.

The Secretary for the Department of War by a communication dated the fourth of this month made known to His Excellency the Governor of the State of Delaware that the President of the United States deemed it advisable to invite him to organize and hold in readiness for immediate service, ~~a company~~ One thousand men as the quota of said State consisting of one hundred of artillery, and nine hundred of Infantry.

You will therefore <sup>issue an order</sup> ~~give notice~~ forthwith <sup>belonging to the 3rd Brigade of D.M.</sup> to the respective Captains of companies to make out & deliver <sup>to you</sup> ~~at your office~~ immediately a complete return of the roll of the names, numbers, ages & classes of the men under their command.

As Volunteer Uniform companies would be preferred by the President of the United States you are ~~directed~~ instructed that they will be cheerfully received by the Governor, as a part of this requisition; and when the <sup>company</sup> returns are made to your Office you <sup>will</sup> ~~send~~ to transmit them without
